PART 2. MOTIONS

2.1 MOTION PRACTICE

- (a) Filing. All motions shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court before their presentment to the court. In any cause of action, the court may designate a date by which all motions must be filed. A motion may not be filed after that date, except by leave of court. The title to each motion shall indicate the relief sought.
- (b) Date for Hearing. With the exception of emergency matters, no motion shall be heard unless previously set for hearing on a specific date on the court's calendar.
- (c) Notice. Written notice of hearing on all motions shall be given by the party requesting the hearing to all parties who have appeared and have not previously been defaulted for failure to plead and to all parties whose time to appear has not expired on the date of notice. Notice shall be given in the manner described in Supreme Court Rule 11.
- (d) Content of Notice. The Notice of Hearing shall contain the title and number of the cause of action, date and time when the motion will be heard and designated courtroom, and shall include a short statement of the nature of the motion. A copy of any written motion and of all papers presented as a part of said motion, or a statement that they have been previously served shall be served with the notice.
- (e) Time of Notice. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, and except where the Illinois Rights of Crime Victims and Witnesses Act, 725 ILCS 120/1 et seq., requires 7 days' notice, notice by personal service shall be delivered before 4 p.m. of the second (2nd) court day preceding the hearing of the motion. If notice is given by mail, the notice shall be deposited in a United States Post Office or Post Office Box on or before the seventh (7th) court day preceding the hearing of the motion. Proof of service or mailing shall be made part of the record. This section shall be construed to comply with 725 ILCS 120/4.5(b)(2).

- (f) Summary Judgment. A Motion for Summary Judgment shall not be heard until ten days after service of the notice of motion pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 11.
- (g) Ex parte and Emergency Motions. Every complaint or petition requesting an ex parte order for the appointment of a receiver, temporary restraint, preliminary injunction, or any other emergency relief, shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court, if during court hours before application to the court for the order. Emergency motions and motions which, by law, may be made ex parte, may at the discretion of the court, be heard without giving notice. Motions for temporary relief shall, if practical, be given preference over other matters before the court.

If a motion is heard without prior notice under this rule, written notice of the hearing shall be served personally or by U.S. mail upon all parties not previously found by the court to be in default for failure to plead, and proof of service thereof shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court within two court days of the hearing thereon. The notice shall state the title and number of the cause of action, name of the judge who heard the motion, date of hearing, and the order of the court.

- (h) Motion to Continue. No Motion to Continue shall be allowed for other than good cause shown. Agreements of counsel as to a Motion to Continue shall not be binding on the court. The court may require affidavits of the parties and counsel.
- (i) Renewal of Motions. Motions presented upon and ruled upon before one judge shall not be renewed before another judge without leave of court and a statement in the notice of hearing that the motion has previously been ruled upon, naming the judge who ruled on the motion.
- (j) Failure to call Motions for Hearing. The burden of obtaining a date for hearing on any motion previously filed is on the party making the motion. If a date for hearing is not obtained by the moving party within ninety days from the date of filing, the court may deem the motion withdrawn and deny the relief requested, with, or without, prejudice.

PART 3. PROCEEDINGS BEFORE TRIAL

3.1 PLEADINGS TO BE COMPREHENSIBLE

- (a) Multiple counts. If a pleading contains multiple counts or affirmative defenses, each count or defense shall bear a short title stating the theory of liability or defense. If a pleading is filed on behalf of or against multiple parties and all such parties are not asserting the same claims or defenses as to all opposing parties, the title of each count or defense shall also designate the subgroup of parties to whom it pertains.

- (b) Incorporation by reference. If the incorporation of facts by reference to another pleading or to another part of the same pleading will cause a pleading not to be readily comprehensible, such facts shall be re-alleged verbatim. This rule does not prohibit the incorporation of facts as permitted by Supreme Court Rule 134 provided that the pleading remains readily comprehensible.
- (c) Artificial Intelligence. All pleadings shall fully comply with the provisions of Illinois Supreme Court Rule 137 and the Illinois Supreme Court Policy on Artificial Intelligence. By signing a pleading, motion, or other document, an attorney or self-represented litigant certifies that, if a generative artificial intelligence program was used in drafting the document presented for filing, all generated text, including all citations and legal analysis, has been reviewed for accuracy and approved by a human.

3.2 PRETRIAL CONFERENCES

- (a) Requirement of pretrial conference. At least one pretrial conference shall be held in all civil jury actions and the attorneys who expect to try the case shall attend said conference. The court shall set the time, date and place of said conference and direct that notice be given to all interested parties. Upon motion of any party, or on its motion, the court may order additional pretrial conferences.
- (b) Statement of points and authorities. Unless waived by the court, at least five days prior to a contested trial, the parties shall submit to the court and opposing counsel a statement of points and authorities citing all cases and statutes which they expect to rely upon or argue. The statement may be in summary form similar to that provided in Supreme Court Rule 341(e)(1). Unless otherwise directed by the court, this rule shall not apply to traffic, ordinance, or small claims cases.
- (c) Criminal and Traffic cases. In all criminal and traffic cases where there has been a demand for jury trial, the court may schedule a pretrial conference and direct that notice be given to all parties and attorneys of record. The notice shall be given by the Clerk of the Court by regular U.S. mail at least 10 days before the pretrial conference. Counsel of record who will try the case, and all defendants, are required to be present at the pretrial conference.

3.3 MARKING OF EXHIBITS

At the pretrial conference or at any other time designated by the court, the court may direct that the parties produce all the exhibits they expect to offer into evidence. Each of the exhibits shall at that time be marked for identification either by the court reporter, clerk or attorneys as the court may direct. The parties shall then stipulate as to the exhibits to which there are no objections, and such exhibits shall be admitted into evidence without the necessity of further foundation. Any exhibit identified before or during the course of a trial shall thereafter be kept in the custody of the Clerk of the Court unless otherwise directed by the court.

3.4 DISMISSAL FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION

In all civil cases where no appeal is pending and there has been no action of record for a period of one year, the court may summarily dismiss the cause of action and it shall not thereafter be re-docketed without both good cause shown and leave of court. Upon dismissal of any cause for want of prosecution, the Clerk of the Court shall give notice of said dismissal to all counsel of record and pro se parties by regular U.S. mail within 10 days of said dismissal. A copy of the notice with the Clerk's Certificate of Mailing shall be made of record. Such case shall not be re-docketed if a motion to reinstate is not filed within 30 days from the date of dismissal.

3.5 PENDING CASE CALLS

- (a) Schedule. Pending case calls shall be scheduled yearly in all counties of the Eighth Judicial Circuit. These case calls shall be scheduled by the Administrative Assistant on the master calendar for each year, shall be conducted by the judge assigned by the Chief Judge, and shall include a review by the judge assigned of all cases pending in the county in all divisions of the court, except cases filed within the last nine months prior to the pending case call in the categories of L, LM, D, DN, DC, F, FA, P, CH, MR, MX, MC, TX, ED, and SC. In Adams County, there shall be a separate pending case call for all the pending cases in the Probate and Small Claims divisions. The clerk shall give notice of each pending case call at least 14 days before the date scheduled to all of the attorneys regularly practicing in the respective county.
- (b) Substitution of Judge. For the purposes of substitution of judge under 725 ILCS 5/114-5(a) or (c), a case shall be considered placed on the trial call of a judge either: 1) on the date of the first appearance as part of a pending case call for that type of case, i.e., on a regularly scheduled felony or misdemeanor docket with a specific judge assigned to that docket; or 2) on the date the order is signed setting the case for jury trial, including the assignment of a specific judge to preside over that jury trial. Nothing in this rule shall allow for more than one substitution under these sections except as otherwise provided by statute.
- (c) Ready for Trial. By announcing "ready for trial" the parties indicate that all required motions have been filed and resolved, all discovery has been tendered to opposing party (understanding the continued obligation to provide discovery as it is received), all witnesses are available for the trial date or served with a subpoena, and that any offer made has been communicated to the client and rejected.

After announcing "ready for trial", any request to remove the case for any reason (without an unconditional jury waiver or a dismissal with prejudice), including negotiated plea, general continuance, or dismissal without prejudice MUST be made by written motion detailing good cause for the request or by otherwise presenting such cause to the Court. In absence of a written motion and/or good cause presented, the Court may, in its discretion, deny the request.

After a party has announced "ready for trial", if the Court finds that the party has not complied with the requirements, the Court may adopt appropriate penalties against the party and/or a delay of the trial setting attributable to the noncompliant party.

The Judge on a jury trial docket, in his or her discretion, may adopt and incorporate orders consistent with the Adams County Standing Order on All Felony Cases and the Prosecution and Defense Felony Pre-Trial Checklist documents, attached to these Rules as Attachment 1.

- (d) Procedure. The court shall examine each of the files on the pending case call and enter appropriate orders and rules, if necessary in each file. A hearing shall be scheduled no less than 42 days after the pending case call to review all action and dispose of all rules. Any rules entered shall be specific and shall describe in detail the action required stating the time allowed for such action. Any rules entered, as a result of the pending case call shall be acted upon and disposed of by the judge entering the rule or by agreement, by the Presiding Judge or Resident Judge of the county.

PART 4. TRIALS

4.1 JURY TRIALS

- (a) Statement of the nature of the case. In all civil jury cases, the plaintiff's attorney shall prepare and submit to the court and opposing counsel a statement of the nature of the case to be read by the court to the venire prior to voir dire examination. The statement shall include the time, date, and place of the alleged occurrence and a brief description thereof, the name of the parties involved and their counsel, and, when requested by the court, a list of witnesses whom the parties expect to call. Opposing counsel may suggest amendments to the statement prior to it being read to the venire. In all criminal jury cases, the court shall read the information or indictment to the venire prior to voir dire examination, along with a list of witnesses whom the parties expect to call.

- (b) Voir Dire examination. If the court does not permit direct examination of prospective jurors by counsel pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 234, counsel may submit written questions to the court for its consideration for use in voir dire examination. If the court does allow counsel to supplement its voir dire examination, counsel may also submit questions to the court and request the court to ask those questions of the prospective jurors during the court's examination.

PART 5. JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS

5.1 WRITTEN DRAFT ORDERS

When the court enters a final judgment of record in any cause of action, it may direct that a written order be submitted. All orders shall be tendered to opposing counsel for approval as to form before being signed by the court. If a dispute as to form arises, the court shall decide the dispute after hearing from all counsel. Approval of form shall not be construed as approval of substance and the court may sign the order even though approval is withheld.

5.2 POST-JUDGMENT NOTICES

Notices of hearings to discover assets, petitions for adjudication of contempt, and any other hearing where a warrant for arrest may issue for a party's failure to appear after receipt of notice shall, in addition to the time, date, and place of hearing, include the following words in bold type or underlined: "Your failure to appear at this hearing may result in the issuance of a warrant for your arrest."

The party responding to said petition shall file, prior to or on the day of hearing, a written response and affidavit.
- (e) Orders of Support. Under all judgments of dissolution of marriage or legal separation, all support payments shall be made to the State Disbursement Unit, pursuant to 750 ILCS 5/507.1, except that the court may, pursuant to 750 ILCS 5/507 and 5/705, order payments to be made to the Illinois Department of Public Aid or an assignment may be made as provided below.

When such a written assignment has been filed, and if the circuit clerk is receiving such support payments pursuant to 750 ILCS 5/507, the circuit clerk shall forward child support and/or maintenance payments to the Illinois Department of Public Aid pursuant to the instructions on the assignment form. The clerk shall continue to forward those payments to the department until a written release of assignment is filed in the case or until otherwise ordered by the court. Upon the filing of the release, the clerk shall forward the payments pursuant to procedures otherwise established for support payments.

- (f) Certificate required. Pursuant to 750 ILCS 5/707, the clerk shall not accept for filing any petition for dissolution of marriage or declaration of invalidity of marriage, and the court shall not enter any judgment of dissolution of marriage or declaration of invalidity of marriage unless and until the certificate required by said Statute has been filed.
- (g) Waiting period. No proceedings for dissolution of marriage, based on an entry of appearance consenting to immediate entry of judgment, shall be held within 24 hours of the filing of the petition for dissolution of marriage. This waiting period may be waived by the court upon a showing of good cause.
- (h) Impoundment of documents. In any proceeding where any document containing a social security number, or a medical, psychiatric, psychological or mediator's report, or the report of any child representative appointed by the court, or any financial affidavit, parenting plan, pretrial affidavit, uniform order of support or marital settlement agreement, is filed with the court, the clerk shall impound such document(s) so that, without leave of court first given, only the parties and attorneys of record in the case shall have access to them and the right to make copies of them.

7.2 MEDIATION PROGRAM FOR DOMESTIC RELATIONS AND FAMILY LAW CASES

I. DEFINITIONS

- (a) Mediation. When the word “mediation” is used herein, it means a cooperative process for resolving conflict with the assistance of a trained, court-appointed, neutral third party, whose role is to facilitate communication, to help define issues, and to assist the parties in identifying and negotiating fair solutions that are mutually agreeable. Fundamental to the mediation process described herein are principles of safety, self-determination, procedural informality, privacy, confidentiality, and full disclosure of relevant information between the parties.
- (b) Impediment. When the word “impediment” is used herein, it means any condition including, but not limited to, domestic violence or intimidation, substance abuse, or mental illness, the existence of which, in an individual or in a relationship, hinders the ability of any party to negotiate safely, competently, and in good faith. The identification of forms of impediment is designed not to require treatment, but to ensure that only parties having a present, undiminished ability to negotiate are directed by court order to mediate. Mediation is based on a full disclosure of all facts related to the dispute so that a fair and equitable agreement can be achieved by the parties.

II. QUALIFICATION OF MEDIATORS

- (a) Requirements. Mediators must meet all of the following requirements:
 - 1. Formal education: Possess a degree in law or master’s or other advanced degree in a field that includes the study of psychiatry, psychology, social work, human development, family counseling or other behavioral science substantially related to marriage and family, interpersonal relationships or a related field, or other degree program approved by the Chief Judge or his/her designee. If engaged in a licensed discipline, the mediator must maintain said license in full force and effect.
 - 2. Experience: All mediators must have a minimum of 3 years of work experience as a professional in dissolution or family counseling matters.
 - 3. Training: Complete a specialized training in family mediation consisting of a circuit-approved course of study or certification, to consist of at least 40 hours in the following areas:

- a. Conflict resolution
 - b. Psychological issues in separation, dissolution and family dynamics
 - c. Issues and needs of children in dissolution
 - d. Mediation process, skills and techniques
 - e. Screening for and addressing domestic violence, child abuse, substance abuse and mental illness.
- (b) Continuing education. Mediators must satisfy all continuing legal education requirements established by the Supreme Court with at least 25% of the hours required devoted to dissolution or family law matters. Evidence of completion must be provided to the Chief Judge every two years.
- (c) Establishment of list. The Judicial Circuit shall establish a list of court-approved mediators. All applicants for inclusion on the list shall possess the minimum qualifications set out in this Circuit Rule. The Chief Judge or his/her designee in his/her discretion may require any biographical or other relevant information from an applicant in order to determine the applicant's qualifications for inclusion on the list. For good cause shown, the Chief Judge or his/her designee reserves the right to reject the application of any person who applies and to remove any mediator from the list. Inclusion on the list by the court shall not be considered a warranty that such mediator can successfully mediate any specific dispute.
- (d) Denial/Removal from list. An applicant denied inclusion on or mediator removed from the court-approved list may appeal the decision in writing within 10 days to the Chief Judge or his/her designee. The Chief Judge or his/her designee shall decide the appeal after an opportunity for the applicant or mediator to be heard.
- (e) Pro Bono requirement. Each court-approved mediator shall agree to mediate reduced fee or pro bono cases as assigned by the court, with reduced fees set by the court when appropriate on a case by case basis.

III. MEDIATION MANDATORY

- (a) Matters subject to mediation. The designated judge shall order mediation (pursuant to the court-approved order form) of any contested issue of parental responsibility, custody, visitation, removal or access to children arising in any action not otherwise determined to be ineligible pursuant to this program, as well as any other issues the parties agree to mediate. The parties may not proceed to a judicial hearing on contested issues arising in that case without leave of court, or until the mediation process has been concluded and its outcome has been reported to the court.

- (b) Commencement of mediation. Within 30 days after service upon the respondent, or in family law cases within 30 days after paternity is established, the parties must appear and advise the court on the record as to whether or not they have an agreed parenting plan as required by Supreme Court Rule 923(a)(2).

If there is no agreed parenting plan, the court shall order mediation pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 905. The court shall provide parties and counsel with a list of approved mediators from which they may select a mediator and shall set a mediation status conference no less than 30 days after the initial case management conference to assure the mediation is progressing. Within 10 days after the court orders mediation, the parties or, if represented by counsel, their counsel shall file with the Circuit Clerk a letter stating the mediator selected.

At the mediation status conference the parties or counsel shall advise the judge of whether or not the mediation was successful or may be successful if additional time is allowed. Extensions may be granted for good cause shown.

A full case management conference must be held within 30 days after the mediation has been completed or is determined to be unsuccessful pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 923.

The parties are to show proof of completion of an approved parenting education program as required by Supreme Court Rule 924 within 60 days after the respondent has been served. The Circuit Clerk shall provide notice to both parties of this requirement upon filing the dissolution and with the service of summons on the respondent. Failure to comply with these rules may result in the imposition of sanctions on any party willfully failing to comply. Discovery pursuant to Supreme Court Rules and applicable statutes may continue throughout the mediation, and any information resulting therefrom considered by the mediator. Any judge may alter the time periods under this Circuit Rule to best serve the litigants and the docket.

IV. CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND ETHICAL CONDUCT

- (a) Conflict. If the mediator appointed has or had any possible conflict of interest including, but not limited to, a current or previous therapeutic, personal or economic relationship with mother, father, child, sibling, step-parent, grandparent, household member, counsel or anyone else directly involved in the case, he or she shall decline the appointment or disclose that relationship to the attorneys and may be removed for that reason. If there is a conflict, the parties may select or the court shall appoint another mediator.
- (b) Conduct. Inclusion of a mediator in the 8th Judicial Circuit approved mediators list indicates explicit agreement by that mediator to maintain high standards of ethical practice. Failure to comply may result in removal of the mediator's name from the approved list.

V. COSTS OF MEDIATION

The parties are to divide costs of mediation, unless, in the judge's discretion, the cost should be allocated on an unequal basis due to the respective finances of either party. All mediators who are hired by parties ordered to attend mediation will be required to take a certain percentage of cases on a pro bono basis, or for a reduced fee as set by the court on a case by case basis.

The judges of the 8th Circuit are mindful of the fact that the parties will incur substantial cost with the cost for the Parenting Education Requirement under Supreme Court Rule 924, cost for retaining counsel, and the cost for mediation. However, it appears that the cost of these programs will be less than the cost of protracted custody litigation.

The Chief Judge shall maintain a record of the number of mediations conducted by each mediator, the cost incurred by the parties, and whether or not the mediation resolved the issues between the parties.

VI. MEDIATION PROCESS

- (a) Commencement. At or prior to the initial session, the mediator shall:
1. Determine the issues to be mediated;
 2. Explain that no legal advice, therapy or counseling will be provided;
 3. Disclose the nature and extent of any existing relationships with the parties or their attorneys, and any personal, financial, or other interests that could result in bias or conflict of interest on the part of the mediator;
 4. Inform each party of his/her right to obtain independent legal counsel;
 5. Inform the parties that:
 - a. mediation can be suspended or terminated at the request of either party after 3 hours of mediation, or in the discretion of the mediator, or
 - b. the mediator may suspend or terminate the mediation if an impediment exists, if either party is acting in bad faith or appears not to understand the negotiation, if the prospects of achieving a responsible agreement appear unlikely, or if the needs and interests of the minor children are not being considered. In the event of a suspension or termination, the mediator may suggest a referral for outside professional services;
 6. Explain the mediation process is confidential as outlined under Article VIII of this Circuit Rule;
 7. Confirm the parties' understanding regarding the fee for services and any reduced fee arrangements for eligible parties with financial hardship;
 8. Reach an understanding with the parties as to whether the mediator may communicate with either party or their legal counsel or with other persons to discuss the issues in mediation in the absence of the parties. Any separate communication which does occur shall be disclosed to the parties at the first opportunity;

9. Advise each party that legal counsel, advocates, or other persons may be present only if both parties and the mediator agree in advance. Such individuals may be available for consultation for each participant while mediation is in progress;
10. Advise each party that children may be allowed to participate in mediation so long as all parties and the mediator consent to said participation in writing, and that each parent or the child's representative or guardian ad litem, if applicable, has the right to withhold consent.

- (b) Reporting risk of bodily harm. While mediation is in progress, the mediator may report to an appropriate law enforcement agency any information revealed in mediation necessary to prevent an individual from committing an act that is likely to result in imminent, serious bodily harm to another. When the identity of an endangered person is known to the mediator, the mediator may warn that person and his/her attorney of the threat of such harm; such notification shall not be considered a breach of confidentiality mandated by this Circuit Rule.

VII. APPLICATION OF SAFEGUARDS IN CASE OF IMPEDIMENT

- (a) Duty to assess. While mediation is in progress, the mediator shall assess continuously whether the parties manifest any impediments affecting their ability to mediate safely, competently and in good faith.
- (b) Safety. If an impediment affecting safety arises during the course of mediation, the mediator shall adjourn the session to confer separately with the parties, may implement appropriate referrals to community service providers, shall advise the parties of their right to terminate, and either shall:
 1. Terminate mediation when circumstances indicate that protective measures are inadequate to maintain safety; or
 2. Proceed with mediation after consulting separately with each party to ascertain whether mediation in any format should continue.
- (c) Competency or good faith. If an impediment affecting competency or good faith, but not safety, arises during the course of mediation, the mediator may make any appropriate referrals to community service providers and either:
 1. Suspend mediation when there is a reasonable likelihood the impaired condition of an affected party is only temporary; or
 2. Terminate mediation when circumstances indicate an affected party's ability to negotiate cannot be adequately restored.
- (d) Effect of termination. No mediation terminated shall proceed further unless ordered by the court upon motion of a party. In the absence of such an order, the case shall be returned to the docket for adjudication in the manner prescribed by law.

VIII. CONFIDENTIALITY

- (a) Privacy of sessions. Mediation sessions shall be private. The mediator shall have authority to exclude all persons other than the parties from sessions at which negotiations are to occur.
- (b) Confidentiality. Except as otherwise provided by law, all written and verbal communications made in a mediation session conducted pursuant to these rules are confidential and may not be disclosed by the mediator or any other participant or observer of the mediation, except that the parties may report these communications to their attorneys or counselors. Prior to the commencement of mediation, all participants in the mediation shall sign the confidentiality agreement prescribed by these Circuit Rules.
 1. Limitation of disclosure: Admissions, representations, statements and other communications made or disclosed in confidence by any participant in the course of a mediation session shall not be admissible as evidence in any court proceeding. Except as identified herein, a mediator may not be called as a witness in any proceeding by any party or by the court to testify regarding matters disclosed in a mediation session, nor may a party be compelled to testify regarding matters disclosed during a mediation session as to privileged communications. Should a mediator receive a subpoena for their appearance or production of records for any issues regarding the mediation, the mediator shall immediately notify the participants, counsel for the participants, the Chief Judge of the Eighth Judicial Circuit and the judge to whom the case was assigned so that an appropriate response may be made to ensure confidentiality.
 2. Exceptions: Admissions, representations, statements and other communications are not confidential if:
 - a. all parties consent in writing to the disclosure or the communication reveals either an act of violence committed against another during mediation, or an intent to commit an act that may result in bodily harm to another; or
 - b. the communication reveals evidence of abuse or neglect of a child; or
 - c. non-identifying information is made available for research or evaluation purposes approved by the court; or
 - d. the communication is probative evidence in a pending action alleging negligence or willful misconduct of the mediator.
 3. Maintenance of files: All mediators must develop a maintenance system for all mediation files and confidential information derived from the mediation to ensure that the files and information remain confidential and are not accessible to other members of the mediator's firm/practice for any reason.

IX. ATTENDANCE AND TERMINATION OF MEDIATION

- (a) Attendance. The parties shall attend the mediation session(s) and shall attend a minimum of 3 hours of mediation. Further participation may be extended by order of court or agreement of the parties. Mediation may be terminated or suspended prior to completion of the 3 hours upon resolution of all mediated issues.
- (b) Termination or suspension. The mediation may be terminated or suspended at the option of the mediator or the court.
- (c) Notice to court. The mediator shall immediately advise the court within 10 days in writing if he or she suspends or terminates mediation or in the event that either or both parties fail to comply with the terms of this Circuit Rule.
- (d) Sanctions for failure to appear. If a party fails to appear without good cause at a previously agreed upon mediation conference or a mediation conference ordered by the court, the court upon motion, may impose sanctions, including an award of mediator and attorney fees and other costs, against the party failing to appear.
- (e) Termination with agreement. When agreements or partial agreements are reached by the parties during mediation, the mediator shall provide a written account of the agreement to the parties and their attorneys (if any), within 10 days, but the mediator shall not provide this written account to the court. The mediator shall advise each party to obtain legal assistance in drafting or reviewing any final agreement. The mediator shall advise the parties that an agreement reached during mediation will not be legally binding until it is reviewed by the court and signed by the judge.
- (f) Termination without an agreement. Upon termination without agreement, the mediator shall file with the court within 10 days, a final report stating that the mediation has concluded without disclosing any reasons for the parties' failure to reach an agreement.
- (g) Reporting procedures.
 1. Mediator's Report: The mediator shall prepare the "Mediator's Report" on the form prescribed by the Chief Judge within ten (10) days of the termination of the last mediation session, and file such with the Circuit Clerk.
 2. Statistical Report: The mediator shall prepare a statistical report for each case on the form prescribed by the Chief Judge and file such not less than quarterly with the Trial Court Administrator.
 3. Reporting to the Supreme Court: The Trial Court Administrator shall maintain records of the mediations conducted pursuant to these Rules.

From these records, the Trial Court Administrator shall compile information which shall include, but is not limited to, the total number of mediations conducted, the number of mediations which result in an agreement, and the number of mediations which fail to result in an agreement. This information, as well as any additional information requested by the Supreme Court, shall be furnished on an annual basis or at such other intervals as directed.

X. ENTRY OF JUDGMENT OR ORDER

- (a) Presentation of order. Each mediated agreement shall be presented by the parties or their attorneys (if any) to the court within 15 days after the agreement has been reached.
- (b) Approval by the court. The court shall examine the parties as to the content and intent of the agreement and shall reject the agreement if any of its provisions are found by the court to be unconscionable or contrary to the best interests of a minor child. Unless the agreement is rejected, the court shall enter an appropriate judgment or order stating its findings and shall incorporate, either explicitly or by reference, the agreement so the terms of such agreement are also the terms of the judgment or order.

7.3 ASSIGNMENT OF CHILD CUSTODY PROCEEDINGS

In accordance with Supreme Court Rule 903, whenever possible and appropriate, all child custody proceedings relating to an individual child shall be conducted by a single judge. Whenever a child custody proceeding (as defined by Rule 900 of the Supreme Court Rules) is filed, and there is a child custody matter already pending before another judge involving the same child, the judges involved shall confer as often as needed and jointly determine which court(s) shall control and hear said issues and shall consider the impact of such orders on siblings, relatives and parties in each case as well as whether consolidation of such cases may be impracticable because of the arrangement of courtrooms, facilities and assignment of auxiliary court personnel.

PART 8. PROBATE PROCEEDINGS

8.1 CONDUCT OF PROCEEDINGS

- (a) The responsibility for giving proper notice, filing proof of notice, presenting evidence, and conducting probate proceedings, is that of the legal representative of the estate or her attorney, except where such responsibility is placed on the court or the clerk by law.
- (b) Pursuant to Section 27-9 of the Probate Act, a direction shall be given to the clerk by the legal representative or his attorney specifying the newspaper in which notices shall be published or the date letters of office are issued where the clerk is required to publish.

- (c) Proof of heirship. On Petition of Letters of Administration to Collect, proof of heirship shall be given before letters of office are issued, unless such procedure is waived by the court. Testimony as to heirship shall be given in any of the methods recognized in the Probate Act. The court in its discretion may allow a person not related to the decedent to give evidence regarding heirship.

8.2 BONDS AND SURETIES

- (a) Individuals. When an individual is offered as security on a bond of a legal representative, he shall state his residence address below his signature, and when requested by the court, shall furnish a verified affidavit of assets and liabilities and shall agree in writing he will notify the court before he conveys or encumbers the real estate described in said affidavit, until he is discharged by order of the court.
- (b) Upon the request of the Surety of a Bond of a legal representative or upon the court's own motion, access to a safe deposit box containing assets of the estate or withdrawal from a bank or financial account shall be subject to written approval of the surety or approval of the court, and the proceeds of settlement of a cause of action for the death of a decedent or for personal injuries to a minor or incompetent shall be paid to the joint order of the legal representative and the surety, subject to order of the court.

8.3 INVENTORY AND APPRAISAL

- (a) Where supervised administration is involved, the inventory must describe the real estate and the improvements thereon, any indebtedness on the real estate, and also the amount of money on hand and list all the personal estate. Each item shall be given an inventory number and the same number shall be used in the final accounting in the estate to show the disposition or distribution of each item.
- (b) Under independent administration, the representative is not required to file the inventory with the court.

8.4 CLAIMS AGAINST THE ESTATE

- (a) Each claim based on a written instrument shall be accompanied by a copy of said instrument. Unless the original is lost or destroyed, it shall be presented to the court at the hearing. If the claim is allowed a notation shall show the allowance on the original instrument. When a claim is based on a cause of action for personal injury, wrongful death, or other tort, the statement of the claim and the proceedings shall conform to the provisions of the Civil Practice Act.

- (b) The legal representative may file a general denial of a claim subject to further pleadings as ordered by the court.
- (c) When the legal representative or her attorney files a claim against the estate she is administering, she shall apply to the court for the appointment of a guardian ad litem or special administrator to appear and defend for the estate unless the claim is consented to by each interested person. When the legal representative or her attorney waives the mailing or delivery of the copy of the claim, the time for filing pleadings pursuant to Section 18-5 of the Probate Act shall be 28 days after the waiver or the filing of the claim, whichever is later. If pleadings are filed pursuant to Section 18-5 of the Probate Act, the clerk shall set the claim for hearing.

8.5 GUARDIAN AD LITEM

- (a) Unless the court waives the appointment, a guardian ad litem shall appear on behalf of a minor or incompetent in the following cases:
 - (1) When a petition has been filed for admission of a will to probate or for letters of administration, and it appears that not all of the names and addresses of the heirs are known;
 - (2) On the hearing of a final account of an executor or administrator;
 - (3) On the hearing of a final account of a guardian, if at the time of the hearing the minor has not attained majority age, or the incompetent has not been declared competent by order of court.
- (b) Unless waived by the court, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed on the hearing of a final account or of a current account on which a partial or complete distribution of the estate is made, or all or any part of the estate is received from, or is to be distributed to, the same person, or corporation in a fiduciary capacity serving as legal representative of the estate, except when said legal representative is a duly qualified trust department of a financial institution or trust company.

8.6 ATTORNEYS-IN-FACT AND REPRESENTATIVE OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES

- (a) The distributive share of a citizen and resident of a foreign country may be paid to the official representative of that foreign country (hereafter referred to as "representative"), attorney-in-fact, or assignee if a resident of the State of Illinois, in the following manner:
 - (1) Such representative shall present evidence to the court that his principal is in fact the person entitled to receive the distribution, and that such representative has been authorized to receive the distribution.
 - (2) Such representative shall present his petition for leave to receive in the form required by the court and furnished by the clerk. When such petition is allowed by the court, an appropriate order shall be entered.

- (3) Unless waived by the court, such representative shall furnish bond with surety as required by the court, in an amount set by the court and on a form furnished by the clerk and shall be conditioned upon the payment and delivery of the distribution to the principal. Upon final distribution and proof of same, the bond shall be discharged.
- (4) Such representatives shall acknowledge receipt in writing of the distribution received from the legal representative, and he shall certify on the receipt that his authority to receive the distribution has not been revoked. The legal representative shall file that receipt and certificate with his vouchers.
- (5) Such representative shall within 90 days, or any extension thereof allowed by the court, present his report of compliance, together with the receipt or voucher of the principal showing payment and delivery of the distribution to the principal lawfully entitled thereto.
- (6) In the event of the failure, refusal or inability of such representative to pay and deliver the distribution to the principal lawfully entitled thereto within the time allowed by the court, said distribution shall be deposited with the treasurer of Adams County subject to further order of the court, and the receipt of the county treasurer showing deposit of said distribution shall be filed with the court by such representative, whereupon he shall be discharged and the distribution shall be held by the county treasurer until further order of court.

8.7 SETTLEMENT OF PERSONAL INJURY AND WRONGFUL DEATH CASES

- (a) Each petition for leave to settle a cause of action for personal injuries sustained by a ward or a cause of action for the wrongful death of a decedent shall be executed by the legal representative or any other interested person. The attorney for the representative shall certify in writing as a part of the petition that in her opinion, the proposed settlement is fair and proper based upon the facts and law which apply.
- (b) If no attorney is employed by the representative the court on its own motion may appoint a guardian ad litem to investigate the merits of the proposed settlement.
- (c) No settlement on behalf of a minor, disabled adult or incompetent will be authorized unless a certificate of the attending physician is filed with the petition stating the nature and extent of the injury and in the case of a minor, unless the minor appears in open court, or the requirement is waived by the court.

8.8 TERMINATION OF SMALL ESTATES OF WARDS

- (a) If the value of a ward's estate being administered becomes less than the "small estate" amount specified in the Probate Act, and no part of the estate consists of real estate or a pending cause of action for personal injuries, a petition may be filed requesting the distribution of the estate without further administration. In the case of a disabled adult, application shall be made by his guardian or spouse, and if he has no spouse, by a relative having responsibility for his support. In the case of a minor application shall be made by his guardian, or by parent, or by a person standing in loco parentis. If it appears that there is no unpaid creditor and that it is for the best interest of the estate and the ward, the court may order the guardian to file his final account and make distribution as the court directs.

- (b) If a distribute is a minor or a person with a disability, an independent representative without further order of court may make distribution to the ward's representative, if any, to a custodian for the ward under the Illinois Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or the corresponding statute of any other state in which the ward or other custodian resides, by deposit or investment of the ward's property subject to court order under Section 24-21, or in any other manner authorized by law.

8.9 ACCOUNTS

- (a) Notice of hearing on a final account of an executor or administrator, or on a current account that is intended to be binding pursuant to Section 24-1 of the Probate Act shall be given to the persons described in that Section. Such notice shall be in writing accompanied by a copy of the account, except where notice is given by publication. The notice shall contain the date, time, place and nature of the hearing and substantially the following sentence: "If the account is approved by the court, in the absence of fraud, accident or mistake, the account as approved is binding upon persons to whom this notice is given." Proof of notice shall be filed with the clerk on or before the date of the hearing, except that no notice need be given to any person from whom a receipt in full is filed with the court, or who enters his appearance in writing and waives notice.
- (b) Notice of hearing on a final account of a guardian, conservator, or guardian of a disabled adult or a current account that is intended to be binding, pursuant to Section 24-11(b) of the Probate Act shall be given to the ward, if living, to each claimant whose claim has been filed and remains unpaid, to the heirs or legal representative of a deceased ward, and any other person entitled to notice pursuant to the Probate Act. Each current account shall state the status of any claim, suit, or proceeding, by or against the estate or representative of the estate and, in the estates of deceased persons, any other reason which prevents final distribution and termination of the estate. No final report or account of any estate shall be approved unless there is filed with the court the receipt of the clerk for final court costs, a statement or copies of documents showing that any and all applicable taxes, executors or administrators fees, and attorneys fees have been paid, and the certificate of the clerk showing that all claims have been allowed or dismissed and listing those claims allowed and not yet shown paid of record.

8.10 FINAL SETTLEMENT OF GUARDIAN OR GUARDIAN FOR DISABLED ADULT

- (a) Upon the final settlement of a ward's estate, the guardian or guardian for disabled adult will not be discharged unless the ward appears before the court and acknowledges the settlement in open court and gives her written receipt for all items received. The personal attendance of the ward may be waived by the court whenever the court is satisfied by affidavit, or other evidence, that the final settlement is fair and proper, that the ward is in possession of all her estate, and that personal attendance of the ward is not practical.
- (b) The guardian or guardian for disabled adult seeking to be discharged shall give notice at least 10 days before the date of her intended application to all unpaid claimants, and to the heirs of a deceased ward or to any known acting administrator or executor of her estate.

8.11 FEES

- (a) No fees in estates of deceased persons shall be allowed by the court without a written petition or statement in a report or account briefly listing all matters in support of such fees including, but not limited to, the value of the estate for tax purposes, a summary of services performed and the number of hours spent on those services, the hourly charge for those services and the fee being requested, and the costs advanced for which reimbursement is requested, unless all parties in interest enter their appearance and agree that the fees are to be allowed.
- (b) Fees shall be allowed in estates of incompetents, disabled adults and minors only when current or final reports are presented for approval, and a petition or statement is presented as in estates of deceased persons.
- (c) The order closing an estate and discharging the legal representative shall be in writing and may be prepared in draft form and submitted by the legal representative of the estate or her attorney.

8.12 ALL OTHER PROCEEDINGS

- (a) All other probate proceedings not specifically provided for in the above rules shall be performed pursuant to the provisions of the Probate Act of the State of Illinois.

STANDING ORDER ON ALL FELONY CASES

This standing order pertains to all felony cases awaiting trial in Adams County, Illinois effective _____.

1. The attached felony trial checklist must be completed and signed by both attorneys at every court date after arraignment. The Court will review the checklist at the time of arraignment with the parties to determine if a trial date is appropriate and what trial date is most efficient. At every court date after setting the case for trial the Court will review an updated and signed checklist with the attorneys.
2. At the omnibus, the trial court will again review an updated and signed checklist to ensure substantial compliance with the requirements. If, at the omnibus hearing, one or both parties have not substantially complied with requirements, the Court may allow the case to proceed to final pretrial if the parties and the Court believe all requirements can be completed before the final pretrial. If the parties or the Court do not believe the requirements can be completed by the final pretrial, the Court may adopt appropriate penalties against the parties and/or a delay of the trial setting attributable to the noncompliant party.
3. After the omnibus hearing, if a case remains on the trial docket, any request to remove the case for any reason (without an unconditional jury waiver or a dismissal with prejudice), including negotiated plea, general continuance, or dismissal without prejudice MUST be made by written motion detailing good cause for the request or by otherwise presenting such cause to the Court. In absence of a written motion and/or good cause presented, the Court may, in its discretion, deny the request.
4. At the final pretrial date, all requirements must be completed for the case to remain on the trial docket.
5. Failure to complete the requirements by either party may result in penalties against the parties and/or a delay of the trial setting attributable to the noncompliant party.

ADAMS COUNTY, ILLINOIS

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2026-CA-4

ACCESS TO ELECTRONIC VIDEO SURVEILLANCE
ADAMS COUNTY COURTHOUSE FACILITIES

WHEREAS, the Illinois Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 ILCS 140/1 et seq., does not apply to the judiciary, as explicitly established by statutory definitions and case law, including the Second Appellate Court decision in Copley Press v. Administrative Office of the Courts, 271 Ill. App. 3d 548 (1995); and

WHEREAS, the Illinois Supreme Court has determined that recordings from security cameras monitoring court facilities are the property of the local circuit courts, pursuant to Illinois Supreme Court Rule 63 and its Appendix, as amended February 2, 2017, and such recordings are deemed to be in the possession of the local circuit courts notwithstanding their physical custody by other parties; and

WHEREAS, the Illinois Attorney General has affirmed that Illinois Supreme Court rules take precedence over FOIA provisions where conflicts arise, particularly regarding the classification of security footage from court facilities; and

WHEREAS, the Eighth Judicial Circuit Local Court Rules prohibit photography, broadcasting, and recording within the Courthouse except as permitted by Illinois Supreme Court and Local Rules, to maintain decorum, dignity, security, and privacy within the courthouse; and

WHEREAS, the Court recognizes the necessity of clarifying the treatment and handling of video surveillance footage of the Adams County Courthouse facilities, in accordance with Illinois law and Supreme Court Rules;

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

1. Ownership and Custody of Video Surveillance Footage: All recordings from security cameras installed and monitoring the Adams County Courthouse facilities are the property of the Eighth Judicial Circuit of Adams County. These recordings are deemed to be in the possession of the Eighth Judicial Circuit of Adams County regardless of their physical custody.
2. Exclusion from FOIA: Video surveillance footage from the Adams County Courthouse facilities is not subject to disclosure under the Illinois Freedom of Information Act. The judiciary, including the courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit of Adams County, is not classified as a "public body" under FOIA and is therefore beyond its reach.
3. Requests for Access to Footage: Any request for access to video surveillance footage shall be directed to the Office of the Chief Judge of the Eighth Judicial Circuit. Such requests shall be reviewed to ensure compliance with applicable laws, Supreme Court Rules, and local court policies. Requests not authorized by court rules or law will be denied.

4. Use of Video Surveillance Footage: Security footage shall be used exclusively for purposes related to the safety, security, and operational integrity of the Adams County Courthouse facilities. Unauthorized use, distribution, or disclosure of such footage is strictly prohibited.
5. Exceptions for Law Enforcement and Judicial Purposes: Nothing in this Administrative Order shall impede the statutory obligations of the Adams County Sheriff, including the investigation of alleged violations of the Illinois Compiled Statutes. The Court recognizes the authority to Adams County Sheriff's Department to monitor, record, review and use video security in accordance with the duties of the Sheriff. Security footage may be provided to the Adams County Sheriff's Department or other law enforcement agency as designated by the Adams County Sheriff solely for purposes consistent with ensuring the safety and security of the Adams County Courthouse facilities, compliance with judicial orders, or for investigative purposes.
6. Retention and Preservation of Footage: The retention and preservation of video surveillance footage shall be governed by applicable laws, Supreme Court Rules, and local policies. Footage shall be maintained for a period deemed appropriate to meet security and operational needs, unless otherwise required by court order.
7. Portable Electronic Devices in the Judicial Center: As stated in Local Court Rules, all portable electronic devices within the Adams County Courthouse facilities must remain in silent mode, and photography, broadcasting, and recording are prohibited, except as authorized by Illinois Supreme Court and Local Rules.
8. Superseding Authority of Supreme Court Rules: In the event of any conflict between the Illinois Supreme Court Rules, this Administrative Order or provisions of Illinois state statutes, Illinois Supreme Court Rules shall prevail.

This Administrative Order is effective immediately upon entry and shall remain in effect until modified or rescinded by the Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
